

Troubling Lessons: Corporate Childcare in Canada and Abroad

DR. SUSAN PRENTICE

Susan Prentice (Ph.D.) is Professor of Sociology at the University of Manitoba where she specializes in childcare and public policy. She is co-author of the new book, About Canada: Childcare, and is author of numerous articles about childcare policy. She is a board member of the University of East London's International Centre for the Mixed Economy of Childcare, a member of the Child Care Coalition of Manitoba, and is working with CUPE's campaign for public childcare.

Monday, November 23, 2009
4:00 - 5:15 pm

University of Victoria - Social Sciences and Math (SSM) Bldg. - Room A104

This public forum on childcare is sponsored by the:

- ✚ UVic Childcare Action Group,
- ✚ REACH (Research in Early Childhood, Care, Education and Health – UVic branch of the Human Early Learning Partnership, HELP) and
- ✚ Canadian Union of Public Employees

... in cooperation with the UVic Academic Women's Caucus, UVic Faculty Association and UVic Graduate Students' Society

This event will interest researchers, parents, community child care workers, administrators, policy makers and other concerned individuals.